DITTANY of CRETE.

NAMES.

A. بقلة الغزال

G. Διϰταμνϙ.

L. Dictamus Creticus.

I. Dittamo.

G. Diptam.

F. Dictam.

S. Ditamo.

D. Dictamnus

Dan Candien.

PLACE.

In Crete & with us in Gardens.

DESCRIPTION.

This Plant rises but few Inches above Ground. The Roo and fibrous. The Stalks are many and woody, which are cover'd w are the Leaves 1, which grow by pairs Crosways and cover'd so thick t is hid, and the Leaves look of a very light Grey colour, inclining but On the tops of the Stalks which branch out at the Joints are heads leaves 2, that grow by pairs Crosways, these Leaves are Smooth of a the bottoms, and of a brownish Crimson at the Tops. out of th singly Bright purple Flowers 3, whose upper part 4, is Wh 5, is divided at the End into three Parts, it has Four white black Summits and white Farina. a Bright purple St on four Naked Seeds at the Bottom of a Cup 8, that is to an upper and lower part.

VIRTUES.

This Plant is accounted Alexipharmic good against Co
Distempers and to Accelerate the Birth &c.

T. Sheldrake delin.